The advertisement features a large, bold title "HERRING'S HINGES" at the top, followed by "PRESENT THE". Below this, the word "ALI" is written in large letters, each filled with a different pattern of leaves or foliage. The letter "L" is split vertically, with a small rectangular box containing a similar leaf pattern placed between its two halves. To the left of "ALI" is a circular badge with "NO. 41" inside. To the right is another circular badge with a dollar sign ($) inside. Below "ALI", the word "LUNG" is written in large letters, also filled with leaf patterns. Below "LUNG", the word "PINE" is written in large letters, also filled with leaf patterns. At the bottom, the words "IS" and "SUE" are partially visible, suggesting "IS SUE" or "IS SUE LUNG PINE". The entire composition is set against a white background.

Hello, and welcome to the ALL HUMPING ISSUE! I get a lot of commissions for art, especially anthropomorphic art. And since America's a country founded by straight-laced puritans, naturally most of the commissions feature sex. Lots and lots of sex. So, eventually, I ended up with a big pile of drawings featuring nothing but steamy, storyless sex. What kind of Klassic would they fit into? There was nothing to connect these drawings but sex! I'd have to put out an "ALL HUMPING ISSUE." So... I did. I unified most of the sex pictures into two posters, thus getting it all over within one big spurt. If you've seen more concentrated sex anywhere, let me know about it - I'd like to see that! Anyhow... Do not make any unauthorized copies of this, or I'll defend my copyright with industrial-strength power tools in the middle of the night. There won't be much left of you to greet the morning. So play it straight, and
